TWO NEW APPOINTMENTS ANNOUNCED TO TRILLIUM GIFT OF LIFE NETWORK BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Toronto - Trillium Gift of Life Network is pleased to announce the Order-in-Council appointments of Christine Clark and Dr. Rema Zawi to its Board of Directors, for terms of three years and two years respectively.

A graduate of Carleton University, Christine Clark has more than 25 years experience in the field of public affairs and corporate communications, with 17 years as a leading communications professional in the healthcare sector.

As the Chief Communications Officer for the Niagara Health System, Ontario's largest multi-site hospital amalgamation with more than 4,300 employees, 600 medical staff members, 1,100 volunteers serving the 430,000 residents of Niagara, Christine Clark leads a diverse communications portfolio and is a member of the health system's senior executive team.

She is a past board member of Goodwill Industries Niagara and currently serves on the Trillium Foundation Niagara Grants Committee.

Dr. Rema Zawi is licensed as a Doctor of Chiropractic in both Canada and the United States. A 2007 graduate of Canadian Memorial Chiropractic College, Dr. Zawi did her undergraduate sciences at University of Toronto. She has been involved in numerous charities such as the Hospital for Sick Children, as well as an international AIDS conference, Toronto medical and youth groups and has been on numerous local and international television programs. Dr. Zawi is also trained in Medical Acupuncture and received her certificate from McMaster University. Dr. Zawi works in two Mississauga clinics specialized in rehabilitation and she is an associate chiropractor in her family's multi-disciplinary "El-Zawi Health Centre" located in downtown Toronto.

Dr. Zawi is newly married and lives in Mississauga.
